

It's that time of year again as festival and awards season concurrently kick off with what is essentially one of the largest weiner festivals on the globe. Sausagefest this year celebrating its 39th year as one of the festivals where the best vendors showcase their juiciest meats

Civilians will have access to a wide range of restaurant and retail specials where the sausage takes centre stage, along with an amazing series of pop-up events. Toronto, Bummers Roost, and Punkeydoodles Corner will be THE place to be, and this website is where you will have access to info on all Sausage Fest activities.
